

2020 EMEA CORE

There are hundreds of brands and thousands of products you could choose to use to help you with bringing your belongings from one location to another and back. But for those who live an active lifestyle and don't just want to blend in with the crowd, who are unafraid of standing out, of expressing themselves, and of what other people think about them,

WE ARE OGIO.

OGIO DESIGN PILLARS

We are devoted to creating the best performing bags in the world. Our design pillars keep us focused on the most critical elements of performance.

ORGANIZATION

For fast and easy access.

Organization is synonymous with OGIO; we are passionate about making your life easier.

DURABILITY

For reliability and longevity.

You should decide when you are done with your bag, not the other way around.

PROTECTION

For you and your gear.

Not only should your bag last a long time, but so should the things inside.

ERGONOMICS

For comfort and endurance.

Your bag should never be the reason for you to stop chasing your goals.

MOBILITY

For ease of movement.

If it's not easy to move around with and carry, can you really even call it a bag?

SUSTAINABILITY

For the body and planet.

With a healthy body and planet, anything is possible.
