

Apex MB Tour Raw Irons

Born on tour and released in extremely limited quantities, Apex MB Tour Raw Proto irons deliver pure feel, total control, and uncompromising precision. Finished raw for ultimate feedback, this is the modern muscle back — trusted by the world's best and now available to players who demand the same level of performance.

Features + Benefits

Tour-Validated Precision

One-piece forging that is proven in competition by players like Min Woo Lee and Sam Burns, this muscle back delivers the pure feel, shot-shaping control, and precision demanded at the highest level of the game.

Tour Tri-Sole Design

Refined through direct tour feedback, the tri-sole design with beveled leading and trailing edges glides cleanly through the turf—promoting consistent strike, improved interaction, and ultimate control.

Tour Raw Finish

Pulled directly from the Callaway tour truck, the raw finish provides unmatched feel and feedback, naturally developing rust and patina over time for a uniquely personal look.
