INTERNATIONAL IN-BOUND ROUTING ORDER - INDIA -

	For ALL international small parcel inbound, provide the following information when the cargo leaves your facility: 1) Shipping invoice – including shipper's name (individual) and name of attention with department/Cost Center in reference field. 2) Courier tracking number. 3) For parcel shipments, the packing list should be attached to the lead carton using a plastic envelope, and the lead carton should indicate inclusion of the packing list.
Prepaid Shipments	All prepaid shipments must ship via the designated forwarder in this routing order, who will bill the vendor. Vendors may not choose their own forwarder. The forwarder will apply the Callaway rate schedule to prepaid shipments.
Air-Sea Difference	If the PO indicates ocean freight at the mode of shipment, but production is running late, then the Callaway buyer may stipulate the shipment be billed as "Air-Sea Difference". In this scenario the cargo will ship air freight. The Forwarder will bill the ocean freight equivalent on the bill of lading to Callaway. The Forwarder will bill the difference between the air and ocean expense directly to the vendor.
Booking	When placing a booking with the forwarder, provide the following detail: 1) Advise the forwarder if this is a sample or regular inventory shipment 2) Purchase Order Number 3) Shipment Mode per Purchase Order 4) Number of Cartons by PO 5) Carton or pallet dimensions 6) Kilograms 7) Total CBM for FCL or LCL 8) Date shipment will be delivered to forwarder (Air and LCL) 9) Date container is need for loading (FCL) 10) Bolt Seal Number for vendor loaded container.
Bolt Seal	Vendors are required to affix a bolt seal. The seal must be ISO 17712.2 standard. The seal should not bear the logos or name of Callaway or the vendor. the seal must be ISO 17712.2 standard.
FCL vs. LCL	If the total CBM of an LCL shipment is assessed a freight rate equal to or higher than the FCL rate, the shipment will move FCL. The forwarder will advise the vendor and arrange of delivery of an empty container if necessary.
Document Turnover	Air: Documents should be delivered with cargo to Forwarder. Ocean: Documents should be delivered to forwarder within 72 hours of sailing. All documents must be turned over to the forwarder and Callaway local traffic contact in this Routing Order.
